

Press Release: Chestertown Art in the Park on Sept 11

Chestertown's annual Art in the Park will feature the work of over 45 artists and crafters on Saturday, September 11, 2010, at Fountain Park in downtown Chestertown from 9:00 to 4:30. Sponsored by the Chestertown Arts League, Art in the Park is a celebration of art in the beautiful fall outdoors. This is a perfect opportunity to start (or finish) your holiday shopping by purchasing unique and affordable gifts of art for family, friends and co-workers.

Our artists represent some of the finest in the area and have included Raymond Bell, nationally known wildlife artists, Raymond Bell and Kurt Plinke, watercolorists, Patty Mowell and Nancy O'Brien, Anne Klinefelter, best know for her bright red watercolor "Poppies," and acrylic painters Angela Ranzoni, pastel artist Holly Geddes and photographers David Biehler and Rich Hall.

Chestertown offers a plethora of fun activities to round out the day or weekend which include visiting the many art galleries and shops in town, sailing on the tall ship, Sultana, and strolling along the Chester River. Check out the Chestertown Art in the Park Website (<http://ChestertownArtInThePark.com>) to see participating artists, get directions, and find out what else there is to do in Chestertown.
